

Retired Cuban Pastor's Fund

Supporting our Pastors in Retirement

The Retired Cuban Pastor's Fund shows our appreciation for servants of God that have committed their lives to proclaim the Gospel in Cuba and will help provide them with a more stable financial situation after retirement.

Methodist pastors in Cuba receive an average of $25 USD as monthly salary. Consequently, their contributions to the retirement fund are extremely low and will only account for 160 Cuban pesos (equivalent to $6.40 USD) as monthly income in retirement. Funds from this advance will provide a supplement of 250 Cuban pesos ($10 at current exchange rate) to their retirement monthly income.
